1. ARTICLE I – Membership

1.1 Any person 18 years of age or above who subscribes to the objectives of the HSMN and abides by its By-laws and regulations shall be qualified to become a member of the HSMN.

1.2 Classifications of Membership:

A. Trustee Membership: Trustee Membership shall be granted on an individual basis to duly elected members after payment of initiation fees and annual dues thereafter to be paid each year. This class of membership shall be granted only on an individual basis and not to a family unit, except that if each spouse or another family member pays his/her a separate initiation fee and annual dues, each such member of a family shall be deemed a Trustee Member. The initiation fees and annual dues are as described in Article III.

B. Lifetime Trustee Membership: Lifetime Trustee Membership shall be granted on an individual basis to duly elected members who pay a lump sum trustee fee as described in Article III.

C. General Membership: Duly elected members on payment of annual dues as set forth in Article III, shall be eligible for general membership. There shall be no initiation fee required for general membership.

1. Individual Membership: Duly elected members on payment of annual dues as described in Article III, here under shall be eligible for Individual membership.

2. Family membership: Defined as husband, wife and children under the age of 18 years of age and on payment of annual dues as described in Article III.

3. Student membership: Duly elected bona fide students and on payment of annual dues as described in Article III, shall be eligible for student membership.

D. Honorary Membership: Honorary Membership may be conferred upon any person by two-thirds (2/3)-majority vote of the Board of Trustees, at its discretion. Such honorary members, shall not be eligible to hold any office within the organization and shall have no voting rights. No initiation fee or annual dues shall be required of the said membership.

1.3 Duration of Membership: Except for Lifetime Trustee members and Honorary members. Membership shall be for the period of one year beginning the first day of January, upon payment of annual dues as described in Article III and is renewable each year on payment of said annual dues. A member shall be deemed to be in good standing if he/she pays all membership dues by March 31 of the year.

1.4 Election of Members: Those wishing to become members should apply to the secretary of the Trustee Executive Council of the HSMN. The Membership Committee shall act on the application and make appropriate recommendations to the TEC. The TEC shall be vested with the sole authority to accept or reject an application for membership. In the event an application is rejected, the applicant shall be promptly notified of the TEC’s decision and dues, if paid, shall be returned to him/her.

1.5 Suspension or expulsion of members:

A. A member may be expelled or suspended for a determined period for violation of the By-laws or other rules or regulations of the HSMN or for the conduct prejudicial or harmful to the interests of the HSMN. Such expulsion or suspension shall be initiated by the TEC and ratified by a two-third (2/3) majority vote of Board of Trustees. A statement of the charges against the member shall be sent to the member by the registered mail to his/her last known address and at least FIFTEEN (15) days prior to any action to be taken in the matter. The Member shall be given full opportunity to refute any charges levied against him/her and to present any defense he/she may have. A hearing in the matter may be held, if necessary at a place and time mutually acceptable. The decision of the Board of Trustees shall be final.

B. A HSMN member proven guilty and/or convicted as felon in the court of law for any criminal, sexual, fraudulent acts, etc. is automatically suspended or expelled from the membership and relieved from any position.

1.6 Member Communication

A. It is each member’s responsibility to provide current member postal address, telephone number and email address to TEC Secretary for receiving all HSMN communication, including notices, ballots, donation receipts, etc. by the HSMN member will be sent.

2. ARTICLE II - Fiscal Year

2.1 The fiscal year of the HSMN shall begin every year on the first day of January, and end on the last day of December, each calendar year.

3. ARTICLE III – Dues and Assessments

3.1 The Board of Trustees at its discretion may determine from time to time the amount of the trustee membership initiation fee, annual membership dues for all membership classification and Lifetime Trustee Membership lump sum fees. Current dues are listed under Appendix Exhibit B, for reference purpose only.

3.2 All membership dues and trustee initiation fee and yearly dues shall be paid in liquid money (cash/check/Credit or debit card) only. However, any donation will be accepted in CC/cash/check/securities, etc.

3.3 Payment of Dues- Membership shall be renewed every year with payment of dues on or before March 31, of the year.

3.4 Delinquent Dues: A member shall be deemed delinquent if dues have not been paid in full by March 31 of the year. All rights and privileges of membership in the HSMN shall be suspended in the event that a member does not pay the annual dues by March 31 of the year. The membership may be restored along with all the associated rights and privileges upon payment of delinquent dues.

3.5 The Board of Trustees, at its discretion, may waive the membership dues of an individual for any valid reason, including but not limited to financial hardship.

3.6 Any member, who wishes to have his/her membership classification changed to another, may do so by submitting an application for such change, and amount and addressed to the Secretary of the Trustee Executive Council and by Payment of the difference, if any, in the membership dues and/or initiation fee. Such change in Membership classification shall become effective upon the acceptance of such, by the Board of Trustees and date. No refunds shall be due any member who petitions for a change in membership category.

4. ARTICLE IV - Voting

4.1 All members in good standing as defined herein above, shall be eligible to vote.

4.2 Each member under all membership classifications except family membership shall have one vote at General Body and/or at other meetings. Family membership shall have two votes, consisting of one vote for each spouse.

Each trustee member shall have one vote at the meeting of the board of trustees. Alternative rules may govern meetings of other governing bodies of the HSMN or at the specially convened meetings, as provided herein elsewhere.

4.3 Each member shall be entitled to a single vote except as otherwise provided herein elsewhere.

4.4 Any new member following thirty (30) days after acceptance to initial (new) membership, shall be eligible to vote. This 30 days waiting period is not a requirement for renewed or restored members. Previous year’s members are eligible to vote until March 31st even if they have not renewed by then during this grace period. Only members who have renewed membership by paying dues are eligible to vote after March 31st.

5. ARTICLE V - General Body and Board of Trustee Meetings

5.1. The General Body of the HSMN shall comprise of members of all membership classes. The Board of Trustees shall consist of all Trustee Members.

5.2. The annual meeting of the General Body as well as of the Board of Trustees shall be held in November of each calendar year for the election of officers, for presentation of reports by various Committees and by officers as provided by these By-laws elsewhere, and for conducting other business of the HSMN. A written notice of such meeting with an agenda, specifying the place, dates, and time of said meeting, shall be sent through email or mail to all members by the Secretary of the Trustee Executive Council (TEC) not less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the date of such meeting.

5.3. Any member may place an item on the agenda for discussion at any General Body meeting by sending a written notice addressed to the TEC Chair, no less than Five (5) calendar days prior to the date fixed for the said meeting.

5.4. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the General Body may be convened by the Board of Trustees or TEC at their discretion to discuss any specific topic or subject matter. A special meeting may also be called upon by the TEC at the written request of at least 10 or 10% of the total Membership, whichever is more, submitted no less than THIRTY (30) days prior to the proposed date of the said meeting. No business other than those specified in the notice of the meeting shall be transacted at any special meeting of the General Body. Notice for any special meeting shall be given in the same manner as for the annual meeting, as provided in Article 5.2.

5.5. Every member in good standing shall be eligible to vote except as otherwise provided herein elsewhere.

5.6. Quorum: At least 15% of the voting members in good standing shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meetings of the General Body as well as of the Board of Trustees. This quorum requirement, however, shall not govern special meetings convened for the express purpose of suspension or expulsion of any elected officer, the required quorum for said purpose being at least two/thirds (2/3) of the voting members in the good standing.

5.7. All business which may properly be before the General Body meeting as well as of the Board of Trustees (except those matters regarding suspension of elected officers) shall be decided on the basis of a simple majority vote of members present and voting, provided conditions specified in Article 5.6 above, shall have been complied with.

5.8. The TEC Chair shall determine the order of business for annual and special meetings of the General Body and the Board of Trustees. Robert Rules of Order as amended shall govern all procedures at said meetings, unless otherwise specified herein elsewhere.

5.9. Any member or trustee, who is not a member of any HSMN governing body (TEC/EC/NEC) is prohibited from holding any public meetings or conducting any activities on behalf of HSMN. Every member of the TEC, NEC and EC shall be required to sign the Conflict of Interest Policy and comply with the rules and regulations described therein. Any conflicts of interest shall be reported to TEC that will take necessary action and resolution of it.

G. Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) Manual

1. TEC shall develop, maintain, and update periodically Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) Manual, establishing roles and responsibilities of each committee, TEC members, meeting rules, member orientation meetings, efficient communication, membership application and records, emergency and safety procedures, etc. for an orderly and efficient governance of TEC as per the Bylaws.

6.6 MEETINGS

A. The TEC shall meet regularly at least once a month or more as deemed necessary by the TEC Chair. Special meetings of the TEC may be called by the Chair, or at the written request of five (5) TEC members to the TEC Secretary. All trustees are encouraged to attend TEC meetings. However, they do not have voting privileges in the TEC meetings. The TEC Secretary will send out meeting notices and minutes of meetings to each trustee via e-mail provided by the member.

B. The Board shall meet minimum once per year or more as deemed necessary by the TEC Chair. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chair, or at the written request of, at least ten (10) percent of the Board Trustee members to the TEC Secretary.

C. Meeting Notice: Minimum ten (10) days advance notice of all meetings shall be given by the TEC Secretary to all TEC or Trustee members as applicable setting forth the place, date and time of meeting and in case of a special meeting, the purpose thereof by a letter or e-mail.

D. Quorums and Meeting:
1. Minimum of nine (9) members or more present for the TEC meeting, and minimum of fifteen (15) percent or more of Trustees present for the Trustee Board meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business.

2. The majority vote of the members present in person and/or attending by phone shall be necessary for the adoption of any matter, except otherwise provided in the Constitution or the By-Laws. If the written resolution has been emailed to the TEC members in advance, TEC member may send a proxy vote on the said resolution via email to the TEC Secretary, if she or he is not able to attend the meeting.

3. If the transaction of the business at the meeting is postponed due to lack of a quorum, the TEC Chair at his/her discretion may call a special meeting after seven (7) days in which quorum will not be considered to transact the business. However, a timely written notice of such special meetings shall be given at least seven (7) days before such meeting time to the members by the TEC Secretary by letter or e-mail stating time, date, location and the purpose of the special meeting.

4. As an option to Article D.3 above, the TEC chair at his/her discretion may send written resolution via email to all TEC members for the approval within the prescribed time, but not less than seven (7) days. Each TEC member shall return his/her vote by email in the prescribed time to the TEC Secretary. Majority of votes, at least 9 votes, in favor of the resolution will be considered an adoption of the resolution.
6.7 TEC meetings & attendance

A. Attendance at each TEC meeting by each TEC member is mandatory, except that absence may be excused due to out-of-town travel, illness, conflict and emergency situations. TEC member shall notify the TEC Secretary in advance of each meeting if he or she cannot attend the meeting and reason thereof by letter, e-mail or facsimile. The TEC Secretary shall record meeting attendance and excused absence details.

At the expiration of his/her term of office, he/she shall deliver to his/her successor all books, monies, and other property or, in the absence of Treasurer-elect, to the Finance Committee.

9.9 The Treasurer shall be responsible for the disbursement of monies approved by the Executive Committee and the TEC, with adequate written proof, receipts and amount of expenditure details. All checks shall be signed by the Treasurer and/or by the President. All expenditures over the amount of $10,000.00 shall have to be approved by the TEC in writing and any check over the amount of $5,000 shall bear the signature of the TEC Chair and the Treasurer/President.

9.10 The Vice-treasurer shall have all the responsibilities of the Treasurer, with the exception of disbursing funds, in the Treasurer’s absence. The Treasurer and the Vice-treasurer shall be responsible for sending out acknowledgment letters for donations to HSMN and the temple.
10. ARTICLE X- Nomination & Election Committee (NEC)

10.1 Nomination & Election Committee (NEC)

A. The purpose of the Nomination & Election Committee (NEC) is to seek multiple eligible candidates from the HSMN members for the TEC, the Executive Committee (EC) Officers as well as members of the incoming Nomination & Election Committee (NEC). In addition, NEC shall nominate at least one or more candidates for each position if it did not receive any candidate application for any position. NEC shall conduct elections from the eligible candidate applicants and candidates nominated by NEC for each position. In addition, NEC shall recommend to EC Officers the names of the HSMN members who can serve on EC Committee chair positions.

B. The Nomination & Election Committee (NEC) shall consist of five (5) members. The NEC members (4) and its chair shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Trustee Board. The term of NEC members shall be one (1), two (2) year. Members may be eligible after one two-year term has elapsed.

C. The NEC shall solicit candidacies for TEC/EC/NEC positions by publicizing on HSMN website from April 1 of the election year.

D. If a member of the Nomination & Election Committee (NEC) leaves the Nomination & Election Committee (NEC) for any reason, the TEC shall nominate a replacement Nomination Committee NEC member to serve the remaining term of the departing Nomination & Election Committee (NEC) member. The departed NEC member is not eligible to contest TEC/EC membership during that term.

E. However, additional Trustee candidates willing and able to serve on the Nomination & Election Committee may submit their names as nominee for the election to the present Nomination & Election Committee Chair, 60 days prior to the annual Trustee Board meeting.

F. The Nomination & Election Committee member shall be HSMN Trustee in good standing and shall not be a candidate for the next TEC or EC.

G. Members of the Nomination & Election Committee shall be required to attend minimum two (2) monthly meetings called in by TEC and EC as observant to get a better understanding of the functioning of the Hindu Society of Minnesota. TEC/EC secretaries shall send TEC/EC meeting minutes to each NCNEC member. The NEC Chair serves as one of the TEC members as per Article 6.2.

H. Announcements. The NEC shall publicize to seek candidates for all positions of TEC/EC/NEC as applicable on HSMN website, posters, temple monitors, emails to HSMN members and other means of communication media no later than April 1 of the election year.

1. The publicity shall continue monthly until application closing date of August 15.

2. The NEC shall inform HSMN members by email, the names of candidates and position applied for after August 15.

3. The NEC/TEC/EC shall encourage HSMN members to file candidacy for the positions to serve HSMN.

I. Minimum Requirements for the Candidate

1. Candidate shall be a member or trustee of HSMN in good standing on April 1 of the election year.
2. Candidate shall contest for only one position as the member is permitted to serve in only one position in all bodies of TEC/EC/NEC as per these Bylaws.
3. Each candidate shall complete the HSMN Candidacy application form, stating the position contested. Each candidate shall also furnish a short biographical sketch (not more than 200 words) with the record of his/her service to HSMN, to other non-profit organizations, professional associations etc., along with a passport size photo. This data will be sent to the members with voting ballots. The complete application with required enclosures shall be submitted to the Nomination & Election committee on or before the application closing date of August 15.
4. Each candidate shall submit in writing, his/her acceptance as a candidate to contest the election and to serve if elected.
5. Each candidate shall sign HSMN “Conflict of Interest” statement.
6. Candidates may withdraw their candidacy by requesting NEC by email before the application closing date, to the NEC Chair

10.2 TEC/EC/NEC Nominations and Elections

A. The TEC Secretary shall furnish the following information to the Nomination & Election Committee by April 15 of the election year as applicable.
   1. List of current Trustee/General membership as of April 1, in good standing.
   2. List of current TEC/EC members with their meeting attendance records.
   3. List of Board of Trustees with initiation year as Trustee.

B. The Nomination & Election Committee shall analyze and consider the needs of HSMN and nominate recommend such candidates whose talents and experience will strengthen HSMN and who represent cross section of the total Trustee/General Membership. The Nomination & Election Committee may seek advice from the current TEC/EC and the Trustee Board for HSMN future needs and suggestions for new TEC/EC/NEC members.

B. The Nomination & Election Committee shall select/recommend the candidates for the new TEC members such that one third (1/3) of the TEC is from the existing TEC members to keep the continuity of the organization operations and activities as well as bringing in new talent to the TEC. Immediate past Chair shall become TEC member automatically on expiration of his/her term as the Chair. Immediate past president of EC shall automatically become EC Past President Member on expiration of his/her term as the EC President.

C. The Nomination & Election Committee shall prepare and submit a list which shall include eligible candidates who have submitted applications on or before August 15 and who have been analyzed by NEC, up to three (3) candidates maximum for each vacancy for the TEC/EC/NEC positions, to be filled by election at the Trustee Board/Member Annual meeting.

D. The Nomination & Election Committee shall prepare the ballot for the election with name of each candidate for each position, including his/her applicable application data for the voting members for the TEC/EC/NEC to the TEC Secretary at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual Board/General Annual meeting as applicable, but not later than September 15 of the election year.

E. Upon receipt of these ballots from the Nomination & Election Committee, the TEC Secretary shall mail or e-mail the ballot of these candidates along with the annual meeting notice at least twenty-one (21) days prior to such annual meeting schedule to the Board/General Membership as applicable.

F. Election ballot closing period may be thirty (30) days or less from the date of ballot mailing, but the closing/mailing date shall be no later than October 30 of the election year.

G. Any signed and properly voted ballot by each member in good standing, shall be sent to the NEC Chair at HSMN address on or before the election ballot closing date to be considered valid for counting.

H. At the annual meeting, all received sealed ballot envelopes by the NEC Chair will be opened in presence of three people panel consisting of the NEC chair, TEC Secretary and EC Secretary. This panel will count the ballots, tabulate the results and submit the results to the TEC Chair for the announcement.

I. In case of tie votes for the position of the TEC Chair, the Nomination & Election Committee Chair shall have the tie breaking vote. In case of a tie for any other position, the elected TEC chair shall have the tie breaking vote.

J. The newly elected members on TEC/EC/NEC shall begin their term on January 1 of the year following the election.

K. The TEC shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees on every odd numbered year and NEC shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees on every even numbered year. The EC Officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the General Members every year. TEC/EC/NEC shall be elected from the ballot list submitted by the Nomination & Election committee as published.

L. The Nomination & Election Committee shall recommend more than one and up to three (3) eligible members to fill any vacancy in the TEC/EC Officers in consultation and coordination with TEC/EC for its remaining term with recommendations from the TEC to the TEC/EC as applicable. TEC/EC Officers will elect the candidate from this list to fill the vacancy as applicable.
11. ARTICLE XI – Indemnification

11.1 Unless otherwise prohibited by law, HSMN shall indemnify any and all members, trustees, or officers, or any and all former members, trustees, or officers or any person who may have served at its request or by its election as a trustee or officer of the Trustee Executive Council or the Executive Committee against any and all expenses and liabilities incurred by him or her in connection with any claim, action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of being a member, trustee or officer. However, there shall be no indemnification in relation to matters as to which he or she shall be adjudged to be guilty of a criminal offense or liable to HSMN for damages arising out of his or her own gross negligence in the performance of a duty to HSMN.

11.2 HSMN will authorize the purchase of insurance on behalf of members, trustees and officers against any liability incurred by him/her which arises out of such person’s status as a member, trustee, and officer, elected or appointed office bearer.

12. ARTICLE XII - Amendments

12.1 These By-laws may be amended by changing, altering, suspending, or supplementing the same by two thirds (2/3) of the voting members present and entitled to vote at a duly organized general meeting of the Society, and the proposed amendment shall be mailed to each member at least ten (10) days before the date of meeting.

12.2 If Board of Trustees does not agree with the amendment recommended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the members, such amendment will be adopted if it again receives at least two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the members present and voting in the next general body meeting of the Society.

12.3 These By-laws may also be amended by changing, altering, suspending, or supplementing in whole or in part by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Board of Trustees, provided that any such amendment shall be subject to a majority vote in the next general body meeting of the Society, pending which amendment shall become effective immediately after the Board of Trustees voting, or as otherwise desired by the Board of Trustees.

12.4 Any amendment in Section 1 to 4 of this article of these By-laws and all the articles of the Constitution shall require a two-third (2/3) majority vote of the HSMN members.
